Warringah Printmakers Studio is run by volunteers & would like the involvement of its full members in daily and long-term activities. Opportunities exist for individuals to participate as volunteers without becoming a committee member. Activity areas include exhibition installation, events promotion, administration, newsletter production, mail out, studio bookings, graphic design, web site design, equipment maintenance, education programmes, demonstrations etc. We would be delighted for members who are interested in assuming a Studio responsibility to include their preferred areas of contribution on this form. We will contact you as the need arises.

I would be happy to help with the following: -

Please let us know how you heard about the Warringah Printmakers Studio. Friend, acquaintance, advertising, an article in either the Imprint Journal, Art Almanac or a newspaper, the Studio website, at an exhibition, workshop, demonstration or other means.
